to the very marrow of their bones the Kaceys lost the last game of the season to the American Thread team of Williamantic Sunday afternoon at the Fairgrounds. The weather was ideal for football but was a trifle cool for the summer pastime of baseball and it had its effect on the players who were fairly blue. The spectators sathuddled in overcoals which were the savy of those who came clad in Palm Reach suits but all the misery and suffering of the fans has nothing to do with the ball game.

The game itself was a good game if one could divide his attention between the game and gave the wiserrackers a chance to spring a few thread-bare jokes about its going to snow and about flooding the diamond and make a beckey game out of it and a numerous other cracks that went for alleged humor. Well, anyway, cverybody had a good dime especially Rollie Nayler and each other the Bissonnette was playing with the Shamrocks, and was apparently over-excited by close plays in the game. William Heckler, 22 years old, was rushed to a hospital following injuries sustained in the game. His condition was said to be not serious, although he was badly bruised.

The finish made by the Cincinnati Reds assured Pat Moran of his berth again next season. His game came through in fine style.
